College of Applied Economics Local Council

ACTIVITY DESIGN

Title: Acquaintance Party
Date: March 6, 2021
Venue: Video Conference (Zoom)

Rationale:

The College of Applied Economics Local Council (CAEc LC) is the highest student governing body of the College of Applied Economics (CAEc) with its primary responsibility to defend and promote the general welfare and rights of the student body.

The Acquaintance Party is an annual event held by the college to gather its students in solidarity to establish a bond between students of different year levels and to properly welcome the first year students of the college.

Objectives:

- To build confidence and enhance the intrapersonal and social skills of the students
- To flourish a sense of belongingness and engage new peers to the higher year levels

Expected Output:

At the end of the activity the following will be observed:

- a. Established concord among students in the college
- b. An environment with strong bond and cooperation within and among batches, and the college faculty

Facilitators:

- Local Council Officers
- Local Council Committees
