AACCUP Accreditation Survey Visit Kicks Off

The 5-day AACCUP Accreditation Survey Visit was kicked-off with an opening program on December 1, 2015. The accrediting team, various university administrators and officials, professors, and students gathered at the University Social Hall to witness the event.

In her opening remarks, Dr. Shirley Villanueva, the VP for Academic Affairs, welcomed and informed everyone with a good news about the top board passers of Licensure Examination for Teachers (LET) from the University.

The newly seated University President, Dr. Lourdes C. Generalao on the other hand, highlighted that as the 6th President of USEP, which caters over 18,000 students in more than 60 programs in all seven campuses, her job is very demanding and equally challenging. She mentioned that taking USEP to the top is her main goal. She also stated with conviction that she will institute mechanisms to ascertain that the University shall possess and embark quality education to its major clients who are the students.

Dr. Brigida A. Roscom, the AACCUP Survey Team Overall Coordinator, introduced the AACCUP Accreditors which is composed of various administrators and professors from other AACCUP-member schools. In her speech, she remarked on the timeliness of the accreditation and the recent success in the LET. The Bachelor of Secondary Education (English and Mathematics) was one of the programs to be accredited.

Aside from BSEd, other programs to be accredited include BS in Mathematics; BS in Statistics; BS in Economics; MS in Econometrics; MS in Economics; Master of Industrial Technology; Master of Technology Education; BS in Agriculture with majors on Horticulture, Agronomy, and Animal Science; BS in Forestry; and BS in Agriculture with majors in Enterprise Management and Plant Pathology.

The Task Force for each program was introduced by their respective Deans: Dr. Eveyth P. Deligero for the College of Arts and Sciences, Dr. Agustina B. Tan-Cruz
